

Yard waste & Sludge Composting Program

Model rural community program combining high nitrogen sludge with collected leaves.

Frankfort turner a14

The local community must support the site's location. To ensure this, educate the public and encourage their participation.

Rule of thumb

For each 3500 cubic yards of leaves about one acre of compost site is needed.